Getting around
UT
Summer
2016

Gearing up for the return of students and faculty, summer construction projects end, and Welcome Week commences!

What will impact me getting around?

Wednesdays - schedule a detour on the way home to pick up something yummy at the UT Farmer's Market.

Parking lot and garage changes

- New garage on Volunteer Blvd & Pat Head Summitt opens with 1000 commuter and staff spaces
- Three new commuter lots off Caledonia, Volunteer Blvd & Lake Ave, and at Volunteer & Todd Helton (overflow for Ag and TRECS)
- Lake Ave garage is now ALL Non-Commuter (N) permits—no staff or commuter
- Staff 9 and 23 now able to park on Volunteer Blvd (commuter parking has moved to the new garage)

Reminder there is NO parking on sidewalks. Please remind your vendors they will be ticketed.

Enforcement

- Reminder—New permit year has started so remember to park in your assigned lot
- Updated policy for Utility Cart/Golf Cart/ATV (all vehicles that are possessed by the University—even if we do not own it) - Do not park on Sidewalk!

Is there anything your department or college is conducting which may impact travel around campus?

We already have big picture items on the calendar such as Orientation but we do not have every camp, conference, or class in our calendar. If there is something you are conducting with a significant attendance, it would greatly help us to know that information.
